

GUIDED HIKE TO THE HUTS OF ALDEIN WITH HIKING GUIDE LORENZ

From the Schmiederalm at 1,680 m, our starting point, we have a magnificent panoramic view of the South Tyrolean mountains. We hike through forest and larch meadows to the Lahner Alm and on to the edge of the Bletterbach Gorge (Dolomites UNESCO World Heritage Site); a look into this geologically highly interesting gorge allows us to trace the history of the earth as if in an open book. The trail continues to the Schönrast Alm (where you can stop for refreshments) and back to the Schmieder Alm.

- START

Friday 23rd may 9.30 am return at 4.00pm
- WALKING TIME

3 hours
- METRES IN ALTITUDE

200 m ascent and descent
- ROUTE

approx. 7,5 km
- REQUIREMENTS

Easy and problem-free hike on forest paths and good climbs
- EQUIPMENT

Good footwear, weatherproof clothing, jumper, filled water bottle, small snack, possibly walking poles.
- REFRESHMENT STOP
